SENIOR CLASS

WATERLOO GRANT TOWNSHIP SCHOOLS

WATERLOO INDIANA

DEDICATED TO

Mr. Alvin J. Smith

To you, our principal, whose kindly smile, whose patient labor has safely guided us through four long years of toil, o'er reefs of trouble, o'er sand bars, where without your skilful aid, our ships, the Man, the Woman, might have stopped to go no further; through the treacherous channels, the swirling waters of our youth, to leave us with fair breezes blowing full into our sails and carry us through the seas of life to our goal.

Our pilot we leave behind. He has prepared us to sail our ship into that "City of Success", upon the continent "Happiness". To you with love, veneration and deepest respect we dedicate this book.

ITEM IV

To the Freshmen to be, we give and bequeath any overlooked cuds of gum, that we had to rid ourselves of in a hurry.

ITEM V

Individually we bequeath the following:

I, Lucille Smith, leave my technique to hold men to Gladys Zerkle.
I, Naomi Ish, leave my fine musical talent to Helen Jones.
I, Edith Witt, leave my brown curls to Velma Freed.
I, Joan Broom, leave my Jeannette McDonald voice to Betty Husselman.
I, Esther Cobbs, leave my studious ways to Emegene Dangler.
I, Betty Bower, leave my like for red hair to Barbara Whetsel.
I, Irene Imler, leave my bashfulness to Jean Fee.
I, Dorothy Childs, leave my jolly disposition to Marjorie Nelson.
I, Robert Hartman, leave my cleverness with Dorton in Safty Class to Russell Donaldson.
I, Robert Curie, leave my school record to anyone who wishes it.
I, Keturah DeLong, leave my typing speed to Eldon Howard.
I, Betty Vallance, leave my art for driving my Ford V8 to Jack Wagner.
I, Alice Dilgard, leave my hope chest full of dreams to Imogene Stookey.
I, James Love, leave my iron-hand rule of the Senior Class to some one who can handle it.
I, Everald Myers, leave my fountain pen at home, my pencils in the street, my books in my locker and paper in the store. Help yourself folks!
I, Harold McEntarfer, leave my labratory discussions to Wendell Broom.
I, Melva Miser, leave my winning smile to Lorraine Carper.
I, Robert Kaiser, leave my basketball career to Robert White.
I, Virginia Whitbey, leave my "don't mind getting into trouble with the teachers" to any one who wants it.
I, Joseph Sherburn, leave my stenatorian voice as yell leader to Beverly Girardot.
I, Robert Zerkle, leave my "Organ Grinder's Swing" to Robert Duncan.
I, John Kurtz, leave my ideas of true love to Evelyn Martin.
I, Leah Sebert, leave my ability as a manager of this and that to Imogene Goodwin.
I, Harry Hefty, leave my sweetheart in every port to DelMar Johnson.
I, John Thomson, leave my leadership in F.F.A. to Eugene Woolever.

I, Richard Heighn, leave my will to chew gum to Clayton Crowl.
I, Junior Higgins, leave my sly whisperings at opportune times to Richard Lowman.
I, Ruth Kerns, leave my gracefulness on roller skates to Barbara Fox.
I, Doris Imhoff, leave my tallness to Ruth Gump.
I, Eloise Bunge, leave my brown eyes to June Smith.
I, Max Rufner, leave my slide trombone to Albert Sattison.
I, Virginia Woolever, leave my dimples to Ethel Ackerman.
I, Rebecca Fee, leave my liking adoration for basketball stars to Emma Williams.

ITEM VI

Now having disposed of all of our High School goods and desires that complete and perfect execution be made of these, our said desires, we have chosen our last will, one which we have found through years of experience to be entitles to full complete and perfect trust; and one whom one other should long since have promises to love, honor and obey; and one whom the beneficiaries of our will may do well to emulate and follow; we having implicit confidence in their ability and honesty to faithfully guide our beneficiaries and to fully and strictly carry out all of the provisions of this our will.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF WE, hereunto set our hands and the seals in this year of our greatest High School Happiness, the year 1940.
